Faculty

Samantha Leeman

ARAD, RAD RTS

Samantha trained with former RAD Examiner Ms Betty Laws in Canberra, and full-time in Sydney with former Dual Examiner for the RAD Ms Prudence Bowen. Despite, at 16 years, being offered a contract with Queensland Ballet Samantha chose instead to travel to London to complete her training at the Royal Ballet School. After dancing in Europe and upon her return to Australia Samantha commenced teaching for various ballet schools, firstly in Perth then in Canberra where she became an RAD Registered Teacher. In 2007 Samantha moved back to Perth to become Artistic Director of her own ballet school. Samantha is honoured to hold the respected positions of RAD Examiner (Pre-Primary In Dance to Solo Seal) and Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Tutor. In 2016 Samantha stepped back from her school to enable her to concentrate on freelance teaching, examining and tutoring for which she travels extensively within Australia and internationally. During her teaching career Samantha has developed an interest in the biomechanical aspects of dance training and is a member of the International Association for Dance Medicine and Science.

Julie Fleming

Dip RBS TTC, ARAD, AISTD, RAD RTS

Born in Scotland, Julie trained vocationally in Glasgow at The Dance School Of Scotland and performed with Scottish Ballet including The Nutcracker, La Sylphide and Romeo & Juliet. She completed the 3 year Teacher Training Course at The Royal Ballet School gaining her Advanced Executant, Cecchetti Diploma, ISTD National Diploma, Benesh Notation Diploma & Registered RAD teaching status. Having taught for over 20 years in Europe and Australia she has gained experience with all age levels throughout the various stages of their training. Julie's involvement with The Academy is on a number of levels- within The Faculty of Education as a CBTS module Tutor which includes conducting Intensive Study Periods for trainee RAD teachers, Practical Teaching Supervisor and a Tutor of the new RAD Grades 1-5 syllabi. Currently she holds the position of Vice Chairperson for the Victorian/Tasmanian RAD Panel. Julie has been invited to Tutor on Faculty for panel run courses nationally and continues to teach & enter students for RAD exams locally in her home city of Melbourne.
